Northrop.

GEORGE M. IRWIN REMANDED.

DENIALS THAT HE IS A FUGITIVE—COURT PRO-CEEDINGS BY VICTIMS IN PITTSBURGH.

George M. Irwin, the Pittsburgh "discretionary pool" operator, who was arrested at the Grand Hotel Friday afternoon, on a charge of obtaining money under false pretences and being a fugitive from justice, was taken before Justice Hogan, in the Jefferson Market Court, yesterday morning and remanded until the proper papers from Pittsburgh could be procured. When the case was called Mr. Moss, from the office of Howe & Hummel, who had charge of Irwin's defence, announced that he had nothing to say at present further than to protest against Irwin's detention, inasmuch as there was not the slightest particle of evidence against him. Justice Hogan then announced that he would remand Irwin for ten days to give the officers from Pittsburgh time to get the necessary requisition papers.

Clarence Buckley, the District-Attorney of Allegheny County, and his assistant, Charles A. Fagan, were both in the courtroom. Both men happened to be in the city and were in court to see the proceedings. Neither of them would make any statement whatever.

Your Ferguson, in whose company Irwin was found, said: "Mr. Irwin is not a fugitive from justice. When he failed he lost a great deal of money and came to this city. He has not been in hiding in Brooklyn or anywhere else. He could have been found any day on the Produce Exchange, where he made his headquarters with J.

M. Martin & Co., who are well-known here. He has been in correspondence with people in Pittsburgh constantly. There are several people out there who have civil suits pending against Mr.
Irwin, and they are trying to influence opinion by having him arrested.

Later in the day Justice Hogan was served with a writ of habeas corpus on behalf of Irwin, which he returned to-morrow morning.

Pittsburgh, Nov. 24.—The next move against George M. Irwin, the pool operator arrested yesterday in New-York, will be a suit against his brokers in Chicago. Mr. Maxwell, an attorney, states that this suit will be instituted by James McKean, the receiver, just as soon as the Court gives him permission to do so. The object is to get possession of the "bats deal," to which Mr. Irwin referred in one of his circulars. It is said the suit will be brought against Northern & Worthington, one of the most substantial firms on the Chicago Board of Trade, with whom Irwin is said to have been a heavy dealer.

J. Scott Ferguson, attorney for Irwin, is highly indignant over the arrest of his client in New-York, and this evening started to New-York to take personal charge of Mr. Irwin's case. Ferguson denounces the proceedings as clearly illegal, and says: "We will give no quarter, now that the other side has so far overstepped their authority."

He added that Mr. Irwin will return to Pittsburgh next week, whether he is discharged by the New-York police or not. He said he never intended to run away, and he does not now.

Applications for requisition papers were made in court to-day for the purpose of bringing Irwin back from New-York. The papers will be certified and taken to Governor Pattison at Harrisburg tonight. When the papers are presented to Government Flower, of New-York, Mr. Ferguson will appear in defence of Irwin. It is intimated to-day that Officer Sweeney is remaining in New-York for the purpose of re-arresting Irwin on other charges if he should be discharged on the suits now entered. These additional warrants are said to charge Irwin with embezzlement and several other crimes.

So far to-day thirteen informations charging conspiracy to defraud have been entered against Irwin back from New-York. The papers will be certified and taken to Governor Pattison at Harrisburg tonight. When the papers are presented to Govern-

SALE EXTRAORDINARY!

$30,000 Purchase of

Mark Twain Books

The failure of the well-known publishing house of Webster & Co. rendered it possible for us to close out, at enormous sacrifice prices, the entire stock of Mark Twain Books published by them. They comprise the more recent works of this

Greatest of All American Humorists, and will be placed on sale to-morrow (Monday), on special tables and counters, at an average of One-Third of Publisher's Prices.

The works of Mark Twain have attained a degree of popularity among all classes of the reading public far surpassing that of any American author of his time. The high prices at which they have been sold have hitherto prohibited them from being owned by the great majority of readers, who are now offered an opportunity to purchase these great works at a fraction of former prices.

Prince and Pauper (one of the brightest and most charming stories ever written); Huckleberry Finn; Yankee in King Arthur's Court; Sketches;
